

In the first instance you should consult your organisation's safeguarding policies and procedures and discuss with the safeguarding lead.

Key Safeguarding Messages:

Worried about a child?

Significant concerns about immediate harm - call 999. Call 0300 131 2 131 to discuss a referral.

Everyone has a responsibility to refer a child when it is believed or suspected that a child:

- Has suffered significant harm and /or;
- Is likely to suffer significant harm and/or;
- Has developmental and welfare needs which are likely only to be met through the provision of family support services (with agreement of the child's parent)

I have other concerns I want to share

The Police Community Partnership Intelligence Online Form is a key and safe way for professionals, volunteers and those working with children and adults to share concerning information, e.g. concerning incidents, suspicious activity or something that makes you, as a professional, feel uncomfortable.

For non-emergency police enquiries, call 101.

Visit northyorkshirepolice.uk for further information.

This form is for professionals and volunteers working with young people/adults.

The partnership has produced a guide to support the submission of intelligence; the form and the guide can be accessed here:
